That is our auto-correct.

If you type G R U E N or G R E U N (without spaces) in the editor, it will change it to G R U E N when posted. When you reopen your post in edit mode, it has changed it all to G R E U N. And when you save it, it shows G R U E N again. Still following me?

I call it a feature. But it is some sort of a bug.

I noticed that too a while back but never really thought much about it cuz it seemed to correct itself when the modified entry was posted.
