So I know this is a long shot. But, the Super Bowl was not suppose to be what it turned out too, a rout! So here is my request. The watch pictured below was a watch that sold many months ago. The dial pictured is exactly what I need. The dial is attached to a caliber 157 movement. I need a caliber 157 and the dial and hands.

I have several 117, 123 movements that I would happy to trade one for one, or I will buy it outright. I have contacted ID to see if they could print one for me, I have several dials that came from 157's that I could use if I have too. I would appreciate any and all help you could give me.

Pictured below is a solid 14 karat white gold case waiting for a caliber 157 to move in. This case has three service marks. It is almost NOS.
