I am delighted to say that I have my own to add to this thread, arriving today fresh from ebay (maybe I was bidding against some of you?).

These are the sellers photos but the watch is on my desk and it is just wonderful. It has the exact same markings as Barney's, including the patent number of 98835. I did go through the 1920s and 1930s ad books to double check, and it isn't there.

Case Serial : 18605
Movement Serial: 148599
