Yep, I've seen the LeCoultre signed repeater posted here, so they're in the Guild in some way. Perhaps only special orders, but would be great to find a deeper connection. I know others have tried. Piguet would be a win, too, but with Meylan and LeCoultre both verified—and using Piguet ebauches—it's likely LeCoultre sourced this 89, too. Hope to own one some sweet day!
