Good memory, Jack—and fingers crossed! I've not run into Mr. Cleves since I stopped hitting the NKY St Vincent de Paul thrift stores looking for watches; he still was voluntarily checking all their donated watches for functionality. In 2010 (years before catching the Gruen bug), I went to Maine for an Army buddy's wedding and was seated all afternoon at the table with Charlie Cleves. Man, I'd like that opportunity again!
