Again something for my green Gruen. The clasp is missing 1 folding part. See picture below:

My ladies cordette bands with folding clasp are just too small to transplant.

If you have a spare (partial) clasp I would be interested. I have searched wristband shops for a men's folding clasp but can't find one. Similar clasps on Ebay are also hard to find.

If I can't find an affordable one I might go for something like this. Any other ideas are welcome!
