Funny to see a strap watch buckle this close to the watch.

Is the strap original or custom made?

I wear my RistSides very rarely, as I find them awkward on the wrist. People do tend to notice them though.

The strap is a Gruen signed ostrich skin, made for the 1980s reproductions. It allows the buckle to sit at it's proper position underneath the wrist.

My other RistSides have the original pigskin straps, in roughly the same dimensions.
