Model name: Columbus Watch CO

Type: Pocket Watch Period/date: 1894-1895

Gender: Gents

Case Maker : Waltham Case Material : Coin Silver

Case Serial: 4145

Case Style no : Closed Face Hunter

Caliber: Unknown

Movement Maker : Columbus Movement Serial: 230256

Bracelet: None

Other info: Stamped "Railway King". For all who knows this could have been re-cased or even redialed. I've seen other examples with the locomotive dial. Stories of Hampden copyright infringements with the railway wording could make this one hidden from infringement.

Came with a dozen or so other very nice gems. I'd have to say I'm no PW collector but money will always make someone do what they never thought possible. 8o Equate this transaction to the likes of buying Amazon stock today at the price when it went IPO, insane!
