The Happy New Year Gruenites,

I am seeking your help. I am hunting for an elusive Gruen Tech-Quadron. I'm not in the solid gold family, (most likely too rich for me) I am seeking a white gold filled or sterling silver.

I understand that pricing is tied to condition and originality. I have some money set aside for this quest.

I am seeking the forums help as some of you know me as a avid Quadron collector (I have 14). My condition standards are high. I trust the forum not to sell me a "Franken" watch.

I appreciate any direction and advice you could give me. Some of you have been invaluable in the past, thank you seems inadequate. I have appreciated all you have done.

I'll await impatiently for your help.

Happy New Year.
