Anyone have a PUW 907 or 1000 movement that they would be willing to let go of? Doesn't need to be working although that would be a bonus. I really only need a battery post arm and they appear to be interchangeable on the 907 & 1000.

Here's a similar movement showing the battery arm.

Mikey,
I have a PUW 1001. It's yours if it will work for you. The arm looks identical to me.

Hey Tomas! I've had a lot of things going on in life recently and simply haven't made time to work on any of my watches. Once i get that one sorted though, i'll post up a pic or two!
