Hey All!

This is my first post with Vintage Gruen, so forgive me if I do not post everything correct. Regardless, this watch has been on my wrist most days of the week and serves me well!

I think I have a 1941 Veri-Thin Huntsman.

This one was pretty easy to open up. My other Gruen is waterproof and needs a special tool? Will post that one sometime in the future....

Yes you have a 41 Huntsman, 435 caliber. Here is mine, I consider one of the best in my collection.

Very nice! I have a rose Huntsman too. Actually one of my best watch meet finds was a yellow Huntsman case for $5. I should get serious about searching for a movement and dial for it.
