If anybody need their Gruen watch movement repaired, I am the guy for you. My prices are reasonable with a free quote on repairs. I know that Gruen 330 watch balance wheel is an obsolete watch part, I do repair them and I have many many Gruen watch parts in stock. Detroit WatchWorks prices are reasonable and affordable than most of our competitors. You can visit me at detroitwatchworks.com... I will gladly assist you.

Jason,

Welcome to the forum and great bio you have as well. I would include the website too.

Hey a lot of us here also have some pretty obscure Gruen parts. More the merrier is what I say, you can hit us up as well.
