The word "Verithin" is widely advertised and copyrighted by us—therefore when a very thin watch is asked for it means a Gruen.

The most beautiful thin watch in America and Europe.

Compare your watch—or any watch—with this one!

Compare it now with these illustrations of the Gruen Verithin—or side by side at your jeweler's.

In appearance we know the Gruen Verithin will win the decision easily. This watch, that "fits your pocket like a silver dollar," has a charm unequalled.

Then compare the timekeeping qualities—ask any jeweler about this. All we say now is, you'll be willing to bet on your watch when you carry a

Another nice one, Matt. Maybe 1915, guessing by the sn & Gruen Case vs WSC. Gotta get a strap on that monster!
