Hi there I'm looking for a replacement stem for 100ss. I tried hard to find one but fairly difficult. Please help me.
Thanks a lot.

I think this is a match. Look in drop down for “100 stainless steel winding stem”. Packet image actually is labeled for 100SS & “Stem” at lower right. $7.50 with free shipping is a deal imo.

Anyone familiar with “Ebosa 49” as a cross reference?

Dear Case
Nice to meet you. Thank you very much for your information. I really appreciate you. I've ordered one to the seller you informed me. Unfortunately about shipping the seller charge $19.50 to Japan. Anyway I'm happy if the problem is only the stem.

Best Regards,

Kitago

I’d forgotten you were across the pond! But I’m hopeful this will be what you need.

By the way, I’d be interested in seeing a picture of your 100SS movement. Not sure if I’ve ever seen one.

Dan,

you asked for it, so I am gone to shock you. Caliber 100SS is one of the ugliest movements ever built. Aquaintance to Ebosa is possible, they are famous for eye hurting designs.

Used in 1959 for the 19 jewel Americana series, namely the Sea Captain and the Water Chieftain.

Woof! she's not a looker, to be sure. And Ebosa is a fit!
