I wear this weekly, it keeps amazing time for an oldie. It has no wear through anywhere on the watch. This simple in form, yet is elegant and understated.

Beautiful! That dial is a real beauty.

I have noticed that on the 157, there is three bridge arrangements. Actually, I think either afire or Cary pointed it out. The Gruen's have a full barrel bridge like in your other one posted today and then a reduced barrel bridge, like this one. I'm of the opinion that these were towards the end of the run for 157s as they are often marked "unadjusted".
