Anyone got a spare one they're not using?

I have a couple of 153 movements but looks like there is no interchangeability or very little with the 155. I'll check some other part boxes.

You need the whole enchilada?

Hiya Jack ole man!

Ok, let me look as well. It seems as though I had some small stuff laying around here. I'll get back to you soon.

Timeticker out!

I think I got a Gruen 155 parts box. So if you are missing some part I might have it. Will also have a look in my movements drawer. 155 is a bit scarce...

Yep, need the whole enchilada. Ideally in working order, but I've got a staff if the balance is broken.

I'll post up why I need it....

I've got a half dozen or so. Let me pick you a good one. I need to send you some stuff anyway.

Do you have a dial and hands? Stem and crown?

Hi Cary,

I just posted the watch in question in the ID section. In short, yes to your question.

Thanks! Appreciate it.

What are the dimensions of the dial opening? I may have one that matches.

Have a dial; thanks though. But the dimensions are 18.5 mm by 8.0 mm.

I found a 155 on the Swamp. Want me to post it, or do you have what is needed?

Cary has indicated he's sending me a movement. Please post up as alternatives are always welcome.
